

Transcript

00:00

first semester at dixie state I was

00:04

going through a divorce and I thought 00:07

that if they have no been for the women 00:11

that were my my professors I would not 00:16

have survived that semester and I would 00:18

not still be here I was taking English 00:22 from Joy Cooney and I was taking an art 00:25 history class for me on see Nancy Ross and I 00:28

at one point broke down in tears to joy 00:32

and told her everything in they were 00:35

just so supportive and so incredibly

00:38

helpful in making sure that i got my

00:41

stepped in and emailing checking on me 00:44

whenever they could and i really could 00:46

not have done it without having them